

A Refreshing Idea

A thoroughly refreshing idea is revealed..... The Secret is Out!!!

Water, water, water...endless water supply from thin air!!!

No plumbing, pipes or wiring,....just plug in and enjoy the purest and most refreshing water on Earth. (avg. electricity cost per liter produced is just 0.02 pounds sterling/0.03 euros or $0.05). Every day an increasing number people around the world are learning how they can help the environment and receive the finest natural drinking water from thin air. YES THIN AIR !!!

We are actively seeking worldwide partners with a desire to be part of this phenomenal revolution. This product will absolutely revolutionise the water industry and help solve the world's water shortage problem. By partnering with us now as a preferred distributor and securing your territory of choice you will reap the benefits of being at the forefront of this exciting new product cycle. If you are entrepreneurial with foresight, drive and a passion for helping mankind, we want to hear from you to discuss distributorship fee and marketing support!!

We are also able to supply direct to businesses, schools, hospitals, hotel's, etc., in areas that we do not as yet have a distribution office.

We have already signed deals with global blue chip corporations and worldwide hotel chains. We are currently in discussions with UN agencies, schools, hospitals and business groups across the globe. The possibilities for this product on both a domestic and commercial level are infinite!!

The time to act is now!!! You can purchase your environmentally friendly units in multiples of 129 per twenty foot container or 269 per forty foot container, at a remarkably low cost per unit of just 400 pounds sterling/ 500 euros/ $790 !!! (plus shipping).

The AWG-1 atmospheric water generator home/office appliance recommended retail price (R.R.P.) is.....1,000 Pounds/1,266 Euros/1,980 USD. Therefore, representing over 100% gross profit margin for distributors!! (note: exchange rates fluctuate)

Experience shows us that once installed in homes or offices anywhere that one unit will sell five more units. With endless possibilities we feel confident that within just a few years what we have here will be as commonplace in the home as a 'DVD' or 'microwave oven'!!

The need for our product will fast become alarmingly apparent as we all should well know that our planet is running out of drinking water fast! So the DEMAND will increase daily - we just need to create awareness worldwide through like minded individuals and businesses.

This product can and will "Benefit Every Human Being on the Planet...!!!"
